

Gender History in a Transnational Perspective
Conference in Honour of Gisela Bock
Berlin, oct. 5./6.

For registration please contact Kristina Schäfer
(kristina.schaefer@fu-berlin.de)

Friday, October 5, 2007

9.30 am Oliver Janz/Daniel Schönpflug:
Welcome and Introduction

10.00 am Section I:
Transnational Networks and Organisations
Chair: Ida Blom (Bergen; to be confirmed)

Karen Offen (Stanford):
Understanding Feminisms as „Transnational“ – an Anachronism?

Jane Rendall (York):
The Transnational Politics of Republican and Utopian Women in the 1790's-1830's

Anne Cova (Lisbon):
The National Councils of Women in France, Italy and Portugal – Comparisons and Entanglements (1890-1940)

2 pm Section II:
Transnational Lives / Female Cosmopolitanism
Chair: Marianne Braig (Berlin)

Gunilla Budde (Oldenburg):
Between Nationalism and Cosmopolitanism: Female Opera Singers in Britain and Germany in the First Half of the 19th Century

Ilaria Porciani (Bologna):
Female Historians in Europe in the 19th and 20th century

Françoise Thébaud (Avignon):
Marguerite Thibert's Career in the International Labour Organisation: International Functionary or Citizen of the World?

Iris Schroeder (Berlin):
Female Cosmopolitanism and Social Reform: German Women Social Reformers' Travels to England

Saturday, October 6, 2007

10 am Section III:
Gender Orders in Colonial and Imperial Contexts
Chair: Francisca de Haan (Budapest)

Ida Blom (Bergen):
Gender, Class, Race and Sexuality: a Transnational Approach to Legislation on Venereal Diseases, 1880's-1940's

Sheryl Kroen (Florida):
Non-Consumption: Gender and Economic Recovery in the Postwar Era

Pat Thane (London):
Women and Politics in Britain and the British Empire c. 1900-2000

2 pm Section III:
Gender Orders in Colonial and Imperial Contexts, continued
Chair: Pat Thane (London)

Birthe Kundrus (Hamburg/Oldenburg)
Transgressing the Colour-Line: European Debates on Colonial „Miscegenation“

Ulrike Schaper (Berlin)
Polygamy, Bride Price, Adultery: Indigenous Gender Relations as a Problem of Legal Discussion and Practice in Germany's colonies

Susan Zimmerman (Budapest):
Organized Feminist Internationalism and the Transformation of Global Inequality

Final Discussion

We sincerely thank our sponsors, the Fritz Thyssen Stiftung and the Hamburger Stiftung zur Förderung von Wissenschaft und Kultur.